1. Make the mash

Bring a medium saucepan of lightly salted water to the boil. Peel the potato and cut into 2cm chunks. Add the potato to the saucepan of boiling water and cook until easily pierced with a knife, 10-15 minutes. Drain and return to the saucepan. Add the butter (for the mash), milk and the salt, then mash with a potato masher or fork until smooth. Cover with a lid to keep warm.

2. Get prepped

While the potato is boiling, finely chop the garlic (or use a garlic press). Thinly slice the carrot (unpeeled) into half-moons. Cut the broccoli into small florets then roughly chop the stalk. Finely chop the parsley leaves.

3. Cook the veggies

In a medium frying pan, heat a drizzle of olive oil over a medium-high heat. Add the carrot, broccoli, then a splash of water and cook, tossing regularly, until softened, 6-8 minutes. Season with salt and pepper. Transfer to a medium bowl and set aside.

4. Cook the pork

Return the frying pan to a medium-high heat with a drizzle of olive oil. When the oil is hot, add the pork loin steaks and cook until cooked through, 3-4 minutes each side (depending on thickness). Transfer to a plate, cover with foil and set aside to rest.

5. Make the sauce

Return the frying pan to a medium heat with the butter (for the sauce) and garlic and cook until fragrant, 30 seconds. Add the light cooking cream, grated Parmesan cheese, parsley (reserve a pinch for garnish), crumbled chicken stock (1/2 cube for 2 people / 1 cube for 4 people), a pinch of pepper and the resting juices from the pork, then stir to combine. Reduce the heat to low and simmer until thickened slightly, 1 minute.

6. Serve up

Thickly slice the pork steaks. Divide the seared pork, potato mash and veggies between plates. Top with the creamy garlic sauce. Garnish with the reserved parsley.

Enjoy!

TIP: If the sauce seems too thick, add more water, 1 tsp at a time, until it has your desired consistency.
