Get prepped

Preheat the oven to 220°C/200°C fan-forced. Drain the sweetcorn (see ingredients). Grate the carrot. Finely chop the garlic.

Bake the quesadillas

Bake the quesadillas until the cheese is melted and the tortillas are golden, 10-12 minutes. Spoon any overflowing filling back into the quesadillas.

Make the filling

SPICY! The spice blend is mild, but use less if you're sensitive to heat. In a large frying pan, heat a drizzle of olive oil over a medium-high heat. Cook the sweetcorn and carrot, stirring, until softened, 5 minutes. Add the garlic, Tex-Mex spice blend and pulled pork and cook until fragrant, 2 minutes. Add the tomato paste (see ingredients) and cook, stirring, 2 minutes. Add the water and stir to combine. Season with salt and pepper.

TIP: If the mixture looks dry, add another dash of water!

Make the salsa

While the quesadillas are baking, finely chop the cucumber and coriander. In a medium bowl, combine the cucumber, coriander, white wine vinegar and a drizzle of olive oil. Season to taste.

Assemble the quesadillas

Lay the mini flour tortillas over a lined oven tray. Divide the pork filling between one half of each tortilla and top with some shredded Cheddar cheese. Fold the other half of the tortilla over to close and press down gently with a spatula. Repeat with the remaining filling and tortillas. Brush (or spray) the tortillas with a drizzle of olive oil, then season.

TIP: If your oven tray is crowded, divide between two trays.

Serve up

Cut the quesadillas into wedges and divide between plates. Serve with the cucumber salsa and Greek-style yoghurt.

TIP: You can serve the quesadillas whole if you prefer!

Enjoy!
